ARTS AND LETTERS, away fast, was steadied behind DIKE during the run down the backstretch, took command at the mile and gradually increased his advantage, winning with something left. MAJESTIC PRINCE began alertly, was taken in hand soon after the start, was in close quarters near the upper turn but moved to the outside approaching the stretch, drifted out under near side punishment and finished willingly but was unable to threaten ARTS AND LETTERS. DIKE, hustled to the front early; saved ground and made the pace until near the mile but gave way to ARTS AND LETTERS when challenged and steadily lost ground the remainder of the trip. DISTRAY lacked early foot and was unable to reach serious contention when set down through the stretch. ROONEY'S SHIELD, steadied at the initial turn, tired after three-quarters of a mile. PRIME FOOL jumped a path soon after the start and checked when caught in tight quarters at the first turn, recovered under alert handling but gave way after the mile.
